

LGAQ Values

We as an organisation commit and aspire to the following values

- Commitment to teamwork by fostering an environment that encourages the diversity of ideas and opinions of others so that individuals feel included and encouraged to put forward ideas and participate in discussion.
- Recognition of the contribution by all staff to the goals of the organisation and due respect for each other's abilities, experience, personal beliefs and rights as fellow workers.
- A leadership style which provides strong, decisive and clear direction and is inclusive, responsive and supportive.
- Promotion of an enjoyable workplace conducive to achievement of personal and corporate objectives and outcomes.
- Honesty and openness in all our dealings with each other are fundamental to good working and personal relationships.
- Consistent professional behaviour and appearance in providing service to our members, stakeholders and each other.
- Encouragement of personal growth with a commitment to learning and valuing each other.
